

Exchange Building, Newport

CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT PROJECT

The Exchange Building is an historic structure and former bank in Newport's Washington Square. It was converted to create a 7500 sq ft office for Newport Collaborative Architects. Work involved removal of an existing bank vault and relocation of the outer shell into the lobby area, installation of a serpentine glass wall, construction of a new staircase and mezzanine, installation of a new HVAC system, sprinkler fire protection and fire alarm system.

Completion date: May 2005

Architect: Newport Collaborative Architects
